27-14-201. Rates and classifications; rate surcharge.

(c) Upon compliance with the rate making provisions of the Wyoming Administrative Procedure Act and written approval by the governor, the division shall determine the hazards of the different classes of employments and fix the premiums therefore at the lowest rate consistent with maintenance of an actuarially sound worker's compensation account and the creation of actuarially sound surplus and reserves, and for such purpose shall adopt a system of

1 rating in such a manner as to take account of the peculiar
2 hazard of each risk, mathematically and equally based on
3 actual costs to the program in terms of number and extent
4 of injuries and deaths, and shall use consultants or rating
5 organizations as it determines necessary. The department
6 shall submit an annual report with respect to proposed
7 annual rate adjustments under this section to the joint
8 labor, health and social services interim committee no
9 later than October 1 of the year preceding the 10 implementation of the rate adjustment. The total annual 11 rate adjustment for any employment classification under 12 this section is subject to the following limitations:

13

14 (viii) In determining rates under this section
15 for employers specified under W.S. ~~27-14-108(a)(i)(F)(V)~~
16 27-14-108(a)(ii)(G)(I), the division shall base the rates
17 on one (1) rate classification for sales personnel and one
18 (1) rate classification for all other personnel other than 19 clerical:↵

20

21 (ix) Notwithstanding paragraph (v) of this
22 subsection, for the calendar year beginning January 1,
23 2003, rates shall be adjusted to reflect the 24 reclassification of industry codes in accordance with the

1 North American Industry Classification System (NAICS)
2 manual, but in no case shall the base premium rate for any
3 classification for the calendar year beginning January 1,
4 2003 exceed one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the lowest
5 base rate assigned to any employer in that classification
6 under the standard industrial classification manual for the 7 preceding year.

8

9 Section 2. W.S. 27-14-108(a) (i) and (h) is repealed.

10

11 Section 3.

12

13 (a) This act shall apply to employer premium rate
14 years that begin on or after January 1, 2003, as follows:

15

16 (i) For private sector employers, the employer
17 premium rate year shall be adjusted and begin on January 1,
18 2003;

19

20 (ii) For employers described in W.S.
21 27-14-202(f), the employer premium year shall be adjusted
22 and begin on July 1, 2003.

23

1 Section 4. This act is effective January 1, 2003.
