ENROLLED ACT NO. 51, SENATE

FIFTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WYOMING
2004 BUDGET SESSION

AN ACT relating to administration of government; authorizing state elected officials to employ their own legal counsel; specifying duties of the legal counsel; modifying duties of the office of the attorney general; providing a definition; conforming provisions; and providing for an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Wyoming:

Section 1. W.S. 9-1-307 is created to read:

9-1-307. Secretary of state; employment of legal counsel.

The secretary of state may employ legal counsel to review contracts entered into by the secretary of state in his official capacity and to perform other duties assigned by the secretary of state. Nothing in this section prohibits the secretary of state from using the services of the attorney general's office.

Section 2. W.S. 1-35-103(a), 8-1-102(a) by creating a new paragraph (xii), 9-1-403(c) by creating a new paragraph (viii), 9-1-409 by creating a new subsection (d), 9-1-603(a) by creating a new paragraph (viii), 9-1-608(b) and 21-2-202(a)(xix)(G), (H) and by creating a new subparagraph (J) are amended to read:

1-35-103. Violation of state contracts to be reported to attorney general; investigation; action to recover damages; employment of special assistants.

(a) Any officer, board or commission of the state of Wyoming, or their legal counsel, responsible for the enforcement of any contract between the state of Wyoming and any person, having reason to believe that there has been a violation of the terms of the contract to the damage of the state of Wyoming, shall report the matter to the attorney general of the state of Wyoming. The attorney general shall make such investigation of the matter as is necessary. Upon completion of the investigation and finding of probable damages to the state of Wyoming, the attorney general may bring suit in any court of competent jurisdiction to recover all damages that the state of Wyoming may have incurred by reason of the breach of contract, or for any money or other property that may be due on the contract. Subject to the governor's approval he may employ specially qualified assistants or counsel to aid in any investigation of such action.

8-1-102. Definitions.

(a) As used in the statutes unless the legislature clearly specifies a different meaning or interpretation or the context clearly requires a different meaning:

(xii) "Elected state official" means the governor, secretary of state, state auditor, state treasurer and superintendent of public instruction.

9-1-403. State auditor; duties; prohibited acts; powers; investigative subpoenas.

(c) The state auditor may:

(viii) Employ legal counsel to review contracts entered into by the state auditor in his official capacity and perform other duties as assigned by the state auditor. Nothing in this paragraph prohibits the state auditor from using the services of the attorney general's office.
