(vi) The University of Wyoming environmental health and safety office.

(b) The governor may remove any member as provided in W.S. 9-1-202.

(c) The commission shall appoint a chairman and other officers deemed necessary from among its members. The commission may meet as often as deemed necessary by a majority of the commission or at the request of the homeland security director. Commission members who are not state employees may be reimbursed for per diem and mileage for attending commission meetings in the same manner and amount as state employees.

(d) The governor may give consideration to the geographical location of the commission members, to the extent possible, in order to have broad representation of the geographical areas of the state.

(e) The commission shall review collection and disbursement of funds and advise the homeland security director on activities and responsibilities under this act.

(f) The commission shall, by rule, establish emergency planning districts in accordance with the requirements of 42 U.S.C. 11001 et seq. and in compliance with the Wyoming Administrative Procedure Act, to consist of twenty-three (23) districts corresponding to the jurisdictions of the twenty-three (23) counties of the state. The commission shall appoint members of the local emergency planning committees for each emergency planning district to include representatives required by 42 U.S.C. 11001, et seq. The commission shall annually review memberships and activities of the local emergency planning committees and report to the governor annually on those activities. The commission shall work with each board of county commissioners and city council to promote support by the board for the local emergency planning committee in the county.

(g) The commission shall perform all duties and acts prescribed by 42 U.S.C. 11001 et seq., and all other applicable law, with the assistance of the Wyoming office of homeland security and other state agencies determined to be necessary by the commission.

35-9-154. Emergency response training, planning and reporting.

(a) After consultation with the commission and the state fire marshal, the homeland security director shall:

(i) Coordinate, develop, implement and make available a comprehensive voluntary training program designed to assist emergency responders in hazardous material or weapons of mass destruction incidents;

(ii) Provide for ongoing training programs for political subdivisions, state agency employees and private industry employees involved in responding to hazardous materials or weapons of mass destruction incidents.

(iii) Assist with emergency response planning by appropriate agencies of government at the local, state and national levels.

35-9-155. Regional response teams; rulemaking.

(a) The state, political subdivisions of the state and other units of local government, may contract or coordinate to make available for use in any county, city or fire protection district any part of a regional emergency response team of appropriately trained personnel and specialized equipment necessary to respond to an incident or emergency.

(b) Members of the regional emergency response teams shall be indemnified and defended from liability by the state self-insurance program:

(i) While engaged in response to incidents outside their normal jurisdiction and pursuant to an appropriate request for assistance; or

(ii) While traveling to or from an operation authorized by this act.

(c) The state may lend equipment and personnel and make grants from available state or federal funds for the purchase of equipment to any local government participating in the regional emergency response program.

(d) The homeland security director, in consultation with the state fire marshal and subject to approval by the state emergency response commission, shall:

(i) Promulgate rules and regulations establishing:

(A) Standards for regional response teams;

(B) Hazardous material emergency response training confirmation;

(C) Local and regional hazardous materials or weapons of mass destruction incident response reporting.

(ii) Establish criteria for providing aid to regional emergency response teams.

35-9-156. Local response authority.

(a) Every political subdivision of the state shall designate a local emergency response authority for responding to and reporting of hazardous material or weapons of mass destruction incidents that occur within its jurisdiction. The designation of a local emergency response authority and copies of any accompanying agreements and other pertinent documentation created pursuant to this section shall be filed with the homeland security director within seven (7) days of the agreement being reduced to writing and signed by all appropriate persons.

(b) Every local emergency response authority shall coordinate the response to an incident occurring within its jurisdiction in a fashion consistent with standard incident command protocols. The local emergency response authority shall also coordinate the response to an incident which initially occurs within its jurisdiction but which spreads to another jurisdiction. If an incident occurs on a boundary between two (2) jurisdictions or in an area not readily ascertainable, the first local emergency response authority arriving at the scene shall coordinate the initial emergency response and shall be responsible for seeking reimbursement for the incident on behalf of all responding authorities entitled to reimbursement under W.S. 35-9-157(a).

(c) Any unusual incident involving hazardous materials or weapons of mass destruction shall be investigated to determine if a criminal act has occurred until it is determined otherwise. To ensure preservation of evidence while mitigating the threat to life and property under this subsection, a command structure with primary command authority by the appropriate law enforcement agency shall be implemented.

(d) The incident commander shall declare an incident ended when he has determined the threat to public health and safety has ended.

35-9-157. Right to claim reimbursement.

(a) The state, political subdivision of the state or other unit of local government is hereby given the right to claim reimbursement for the costs resulting from action taken to remove, contain or otherwise mitigate the effects of a hazardous materials abandonment, a hazardous materials spill or a weapons of mass destruction incident.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, no person shall be liable under this act if the incident was caused by:

(i) An act of God; or

(ii) An act or omission of a person not defined as a transporter under this act, provided that:

(A) The potentially liable person exercised reasonable care with respect to the hazardous material involved, taking into consideration the characteristics of the hazardous material in light of all relevant facts and circumstances; and

(B) The potentially liable person took reasonable precautions against foreseeable acts or omissions of any third person and the consequences that could foreseeably result from those acts or omissions.

(c) Local emergency response authorities and regional emergency response teams shall be entitled to recover their reasonable and necessary costs incurred as a result of their response to a hazardous material or weapons of mass destruction incident. Costs subject to recovery under this act include, but are not limited to, the following:

(i) Disposable materials and supplies acquired, consumed and expended specifically for the purpose of the response;

(ii) Remuneration of employees for the time and efforts devoted to responding to a hazardous materials or weapons of mass destruction incident outside the responders' normal jurisdiction;

(iii) A reasonable fee, as established through rules and regulations of the homeland security director, for the use of equipment, including rolling stock, in responding to a hazardous materials or weapons of mass destruction incident outside the responders' normal jurisdiction;

(iv) Rental or leasing of equipment used specifically for the response;

(v) At value replacement costs for equipment owned by the person claiming reimbursement that is contaminated beyond reuse or repair, if the loss occurred as a result of the response;

(vi) Decontamination of equipment contaminated during the response;

(vii) Special technical services specifically requested and required for the response;

(viii) Medical monitoring or treatment of response personnel;

(ix) Laboratory expenses for analyzing samples taken during the response; and

(x) If determined to involve criminal activity, all costs and expenses of the investigation.

(d) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to change or impair any right of recovery or subrogation arising under any other provision of law.

35-9-158. Expense recovery and civil remedies.

(a) The decision to commence a civil action to recover expenses shall be made by the state, political subdivision of the state or other unit of local government, including local emergency response authorities and regional response teams, in consultation with the attorney general or county or municipal attorney as appropriate.

(b) Prior to commencing a civil action for recovery of expenses pursuant to this act, the governmental entity shall afford the person alleged to owe those expenses a reasonable opportunity to engage in nonbinding mediation. Each party to mediation shall bear his own costs and expenses, including a proportionate share of the fees of the mediator.

(c) In the event that the attorney general or county or municipal attorney prevails in a civil action for reimbursement under this act, the court shall award costs of collection including reasonable attorney's fees, investigation expenses and litigation expenses.

(d) Any person who receives remuneration for the emergency response expenses pursuant to any other federal or state law shall be precluded from recovering reimbursement for those expenses under this act. Nothing in this act shall otherwise affect or modify in any way the obligations or liability of any person under any other provision of state or federal law, including common law, for damages, injury or loss resulting from the release of any hazardous material or for remedial action or the expenses of remedial action for the release.

35-9-159. Exceptions to reimbursements; exception to act.

(a) This act shall not apply to releases of a hazardous material where there is an immediate on-site private industry response capability to the emergency. The exemption under this subsection shall apply only if the private industry files evidence of its immediate response capability to respond to emergency releases of hazardous materials that may be present at the site of the private industry or the responsible party and incident commander have determined that the local or regional response team is no longer required and should be released. The exemption shall not apply if emergency responders responded to a release of hazardous materials at the request of the on-site private industry where the emergency occurred.

(b) The state, political subdivisions of the state or other unit of local government shall not be entitled to reimbursement under this act from any responsible party for an incident involving less than the following quantities of hazardous materials:
