3 the judge may take testimony to establish a factual basis
4 and accept an admission and perform all other requirements
5 of the initial hearing but shall not proceed to 6 disposition. If denied, the court shall set a time not to 7 exceed sixty (60) days for an adjudicatory hearing or a

12

13 (d) Regardless of whether the allegations in the 14 petition are admitted or denied, the court shall determine
15 whether or not the child's full-time detention or shelter
16 care is required pending further proceedings. If the court 17 finds that returning the child to the home is contrary to 18 the welfare of the child, the court shall enter the finding 19 on the record and order the child placed in the legal 20 custody of the department. If the court finds that 21 full-time detention or shelter care is not required, the 22 court shall order the child released and may impose one (1)

14 is not released after the hearing, the commissioner shall 15 promptly file with the court a complete written resume of 16 the evidence adduced at the hearing and his reasons for not 17 releasing the child. The commissioner shall conduct the 18 hearing pursuant to W.S. 14-6-209 except that, if a child 19 who has been advised of his rights wishes to admit the 20 allegations, the commissioner may take testimony to 21 establish a factual basis and accept the admission and 22 perform all other requirements of the initial hearing but 23 shall not proceed to disposition. The commissioner may also 24 appoint counsel, appoint a guardian ad litem, order a

13 than two (2) days before the hearing and when made outside 14 the state, service ~~must~~ shall be completed not less than 15 five (5) days before the hearing. However, notwithstanding

2 required; contents of affidavit and warrant; service and
3 return.

4
5 (a) The court or a commissioner may issue a search

6 ninety (90) days after the date the petition is filed. Only 7 competent, relevant and material evidence shall be

11 in the petition are not established as required by this 12 act, it shall dismiss the petition and order the child
13 released from any detention or shelter care.

14

15 (c) If after an adjudicatory hearing or a valid
16 admission or confession the court or jury finds that a

24 court.

2 (d) If prior to discharge by the court or expiration
3 of the consent decree, a child alleged to be delinquent 4 fails to fulfill the terms and conditions of the decree or 5 a new petition is filed alleging the child delinquent 6 because of misconduct occurring during the term of the 7 consent decree, the original petition and proceedings may 8 be reinstated ~~at the district attorney's discretion and the~~ 9 ~~child held accountable~~ upon order of the court after 10 hearing and the matter may proceed as though the consent
11 decree had never been entered. If, as part of the consent 12 decree, the child made an admission to any of the 13 allegations contained in the original petition, that 14 admission shall be entered if the court orders that the 15 original petition and proceeding be reinstated, If the 16 admission is entered, the court may proceed to disposition
