2 for the disestablishment of paternity as specified; and
3 providing for an effective date.

4

5 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Wyoming:

6

7 Section 1. W.S. 14-2-823(e) and by creating new 8 subsections (f) through (p) is amended to read:

9

10 14-2-823. Binding effect of determination of 11 parentage.

12

13 (e) ~~A party to~~ An adjudication of the paternity of a
14 child issued by a court of this state or by the filing of an
15 acknowledgment of paternity pursuant to W.S. 14-2-605
16 without the benefit of genetic testing, may ~~challenge~~ be

1 challenged by a party to the adjudication only ~~under the~~
2 ~~laws of this state relating to appeal, vacation of judgments~~
3 ~~or other judicial review~~ if post-adjudication genetic
4 testing proves that the adjudicated father is not the 5 biological father of the child pursuant to W.S. 14-2-817.

6 This section does not apply to any of the following:

7
8 (i) A paternity determination made in or by a
9 foreign jurisdiction or a paternity determination which has 10 been made in or by a foreign jurisdiction and registered in 11 this state in accordance with the Uniform Interstate Family
12 Support Act;

13
14 (ii) A paternity determination based upon a court
15 or administrative order of this state if the order was 16 entered based upon blood or genetic test results which 17 demonstrate that the alleged father was not excluded and 18 that the probability of the alleged father's paternity was 19 ninety-nine percent (99%) or higher.

20
21 (f) A petition for disestablishment of paternity shall 22 be filed:

23

1           (i) In the district court in which the paternity
2 order is filed;

3
4           (ii) In the case of an adjudication as a result
5 of the filing of an acknowledgment of paternity pursuant to 6 W.S. 14-2-605, notwithstanding any other provision of this 7 chapter, the petition shall be filed within the earlier of
8 two (2) years after the petitioner knew or should have known
9 that the paternity of the child was at issue or as provided
10 in W.S. 14-2-809(b).

11
12           (iii) In the case of an adjudication issued by a
13 court of this state, the petition shall be filed only by the 14 mother of the child, the adjudicated father of the child,
15 the child, if the child was a party to the adjudication, or 16 the legal representative of any of these parties. A 17 petition filed by an individual who is not a party to the 18 adjudication shall be filed pursuant to W.S. 14-2-809. The 19 petition under this paragraph shall be filed no later than
20 two (2) years after the petitioner knew or should have known
21 that the paternity of the child was at issue.

22
23           (g) The court shall appoint an attorney to represent 24 the best interests of a child if the court finds that the

1 best interests of the child is not adequately represented.
2 In cases concerning an adjudication of paternity pursuant to
3 subsection (c) of this section, the court shall appoint an 4 attorney to represent the best interests of the child. In
5 determining the best interests of the child, the court shall
6 consider the following factors:

7
8 (i) The length of time between the proceeding to 9 adjudicate parentage and the time that the adjudicated
10 father was placed on notice that he might not be the genetic
11 father;

13 (ii) The length of time during which the 14 adjudicated father has assumed the role of the father of the 15 child;

16
17 (iii) The facts surrounding the adjudicated
18 father's discovery of his possible nonpaternity;

19
20 (iv) The nature of the relationship between the 21 child and the adjudicated father;

22
23 (v) The age of the child;

24

1           (vi) The harm that may result to the child if
2 adjudicated paternity is successfully disproved;

3
4           (vii) The nature of the relationship between the 5 child and any alleged father;

6
7           (viii) The extent to which the passage of time
8 reduces the chances of establishing the paternity of another
9 man and a child support obligation in favor of the child;
10 and

11
12           (ix) Other factors that may affect the equities
13 arising from the disruption of the father-child relationship
14 between the child and the adjudicated father or the chance
15 of other harm to the child.

16
17           (h) The court may order genetic testing pursuant to 18 article 7 of this chapter.

19
20           (j) The court may grant relief on the petition filed
21 in accordance with this section upon a finding by the court
22 of all of the following:

23

1           (i) The relief sought is in the best interests of
2 the child pursuant to the factors in this section;

3
4           (ii) The genetic test upon which the relief is
5 granted was properly conducted;

6
7           (iii) The adjudicated father has not adopted the 8 child;

9
10           (iv) The child is not a child whose paternity is 11 governed by article 9 of this chapter;

12
13           (v) The adjudicated father did not act to prevent 14 the biological father of the child from asserting his 15 paternal rights with respect to the child.

16
17           (k) If the court determines that test results
18 conducted in accordance with W.S. 14-2-703 and 14-2-704
19 exclude the adjudicated father as the biological father, the 20 court may nonetheless dismiss the action to overcome
21 paternity and affirm the paternity adjudication if:

22

1           (i) The adjudicated father requests that
2 paternity be preserved and that the parent-child
3 relationship be continued; or

4
5           (ii) The court finds that it is in the best
6 interests of the child to preserve paternity. In
7 determining the best interests of the child, the court shall
8 consider all of the factors listed in this section.

9
10          (m) If the court finds that the adjudication of 11 paternity should be vacated, in accordance with all of the 12 conditions prescribed, the court shall enter an order which 13 provides all of the following:

14
15           (i) That the disestablishment of paternity is in 16 the best interests of the child pursuant to the factors in 17 this section;

18
19           (ii) That the adjudicated father is not the 20 biological father of the child;

21
22           (iii) That the adjudicated father's parental
23 rights and responsibilities are terminated as of the date of 24 the filing of the order;

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23

(iv) That the birth records agency shall amend the child's birth certificate by removing the adjudicated father's name, if it appears thereon, and issue a new birth certificate for the child;

(v) That the adjudicated father is relieved of any and all future support obligations owed on behalf of the child from the date that the order determining that the established father is not the biological father is filed;

(vi) That any unpaid support due prior to the date the order determining that the adjudicated father is not the biological father is filed, is due and owing;

(vii) That the adjudicated father has no right to reimbursement of past child support paid to the mother, the state of Wyoming or any other assignee of child support.

(n) Participation of the Title IV-D agency in an action brought under this section shall be limited as follows:

1           (i) The Title IV-D agency shall only participate
2 in actions if services are being provided by the Title IV-D
3 agency pursuant to title 20 chapter 6 of the Wyoming
4 Statutes;

5
6           (ii) When services are being provided by the 7 Title IV-D agency under title 20 chapter 6 of the Wyoming
8 Statutes, the Title IV-D agency may assist in obtaining
9 genetic tests pursuant to article 7 of this chapter;

10
11           (iii) An attorney acting on behalf of the Title
12 IV-D agency represents the state of Wyoming in any action
13 under this section. The Title IV-D agency's attorney is not
14 the legal representative of the mother, the adjudicated
15 father or the child in any action brought under this 16 section.

17
18           (o) The costs of genetic testing, the fee of any 19 guardian ad litem and all court costs shall be paid by the 20 person bringing the action to overcome paternity unless 21 otherwise provided by law.

22

1       (p) A man presumed to be the father of a child without
2 adjudication of paternity may bring a proceeding to
3 adjudicate paternity pursuant to W.S. 14-2-807.

4

5       Section 2. This act is effective July 1, 2005.
