Page 3-after line 2

Insert and renumber as necessary:

"(e) The select committee shall undertake a preliminary study to examine the educational programs for schools established under W.S. 21-9-101 and other Wyoming law. The study shall include any potential modifications to the educational programs necessary to ensure the programs are proper and fit for purpose. As part of this analysis, the select committee shall work with professional consultant experts for national educational program best practices or other consultants. The legislative service office, subject to the approval of management council, shall retain professional consulting experts for the purposes of this act. The study under this subsection shall include consideration of alternatives to the educational programs for schools which shall be developed in consultation with relevant stakeholders and the advisory committee as provided in subsection (f) of this section. The select committee shall develop a framework for considering alternative educational programs under this subsection.

(f) The select committee shall be assisted by an advisory committee to provide information to the select committee as it deems necessary to carry out subsection (e) of this section. The advisory committee shall consist of the following members:

(i) One (1) member who is a superintendent of a large Wyoming school district and one (1) member who is a superintendent of a small Wyoming school district, appointed by the Wyoming association of school administrators;

(ii) One (1) member who is serving as a trustee on a Wyoming school district board of trustees appointed by the state superintendent of public instruction;

(iii) One (1) member who is serving on the Wyoming state board of education designated by the state superintendent of public instruction;

(iv) A representative of the department of education designated by the state superintendent of public instruction;

(v) A representative of the governor designated by the governor;

(vi) Two (2) members who are parents of a child enrolled in a Wyoming school district appointed by the governor;

(vii) A student enrolled in a Wyoming school district appointed by the governor;

(viii) A representative of the Wyoming business community appointed by the governor.

(g) Appointments to the advisory committee pursuant to subsection (f) of this section shall be made not later than March 31, 2020. The appointing authority for any member who vacates an appointment shall fill the vacancy. Any member appointed to the advisory committee who is not an employee of a government entity or political subdivision, or a member of a political subdivision board or commission, shall receive per diem and travel expenses in the manner and amount provided to state employees under W.S. 9-3-103. Reimbursement shall be made from amounts appropriated under subsection (m) of this section."
