"(j) Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section or any other provision of law, upon receiving an application from a taxpayer a county may enter into an agreement with the taxpayer to accept payments for the ad valorem tax on mineral production under the processes and procedures in place prior to the effective date of this section, subject to the following:

(i) Prior to entering into any agreement under this subsection, the county shall:

(A) Establish uniform eligibility criteria and an application process;

(B) Conduct at least one (1) public meeting related to the proposed agreement. The county shall notify all taxing authorities that receive any taxes that may be impacted by the agreement of the meeting at least fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting.

(ii) Upon entering into any agreement under this subsection, the county shall notify the department. The notification under this subsection shall be provided no later than February 1, 2022 for all taxpayers;

(iii) Upon receipt of notice from a county under this subsection, the department shall exempt the taxpayer from the provisions of this section and the taxpayer shall be subject to all processes, procedures and requirements in place prior to the effective date of this section;

(iv) No taxpayer shall be eligible for an agreement under this subsection for mineral production from any property acquired on or after the effective date of this section."
