HOUSE EDUCATION COMMITTEE MEETING SET TO DISCUSS OMNIBUS EDUCATION BILL

CHEYENNE –Rep. David Northrup, Chairman of the House Education Committee, has announced the Committee will meet Monday at 6 p.m. in the Cheyenne East High School Auditorium, located at 2800 E. Pershing Blvd.

The purpose of this meeting is to work House Bill 236-School Finance-Omnibus Education Funding. During the proceedings, public comment will be taken at the approximate times listed below:

6 p.m.: Explanation of the legislation by Legislative Service Office staff.
6:30 p.m.: Public comment regarding budget cuts related to the legislation.
7:15 p.m.: Public comment on revenue enhancements included in the legislation.
8 p.m.: Public comment related to other aspects of the legislation.
8:30 p.m. Members of the committee will discuss and vote on the legislation.

Public comment will be limited to two minutes per person and those wishing to address the committee are strongly encouraged to prepare written statements for their reference when testifying in front of the committee. A larger venue is being used to accommodate the public and an archived video of the meeting will be available under “Current Items of Interest” on the Legislature’s homepage at www.wyoleg.gov.

The legislation is also available for the public’s review on the Legislature’s homepage at www.wyoleg.gov. For members of the public who cannot attend the meeting, public comment on the legislation can be submitted electronically through Feb. 6 also on the Legislature’s homepage under “Current Items of Interest.”

Questions regarding the meeting should be directed to Anthony Sara at the Wyoming Legislative Service Office at 777-7881 and questions regarding the legislation should be directed to Rep. David Northrup, Chairman of the House Education Committee. – End –
